Spring has Sprung, time for change and for letting go.

Winter, the time for rest and reflection has left us, leaving room for the fresh breezes of Spring. Spring is the perfect time for a personal Spring Clean. A time to take a good look at our life, our health, our relationships,our Self.

A time to make change and to let go of the things in life that no longer work well for us.

- Are there areas of your life that you wish you could change?
- Or perhaps someone else has pointed out areas that need changing?
- Are your relationships fulfilling?
- Does your career satisfy you?
- Do you feel as healthy as you could?

Reiki changes lives! I see it daily in my life and the lives of those around me. Reiki creates positive thought and action.

Reiki allows you to let go of negative, damaging and painful thoughts and feelings. It creates positive and lasting change in all areas of your life.

Learning Reiki allows you to take responsibility for your own healing, your own life and your own destiny. Which you can then share with others, helping them to understand and obtain balance, harmony and joy within their life. Learning Reiki creates a new, fulfilling and prosperous career.

Give yourself the gift of Reiki and start creating change in your life today.

"Your children will see what you are all about by what you live rather than what you say."

One recent workshop participant says;

“I must tell you what a wonderful experience I had with our Reiki 1 workshop day together and what profound energies I have been experiencing. Everyday things just become clearer and easier. My house thanked me for releasing it from the awful negative prison it has been held in for a while, and animals just started coming towards me without the enticement of food, Thank you and bless you for your guidance, teaching and support.” Love J
